UID#

Check this box if you will be enrolled at UCLA for Summer 2021

Students who file their Financial Aid Application past the March 2nd priority filing deadline are not automatically considered for institutional aid. If your Expected Family Contribution exceeds your cost of attendance, submitting this appeal will not change your eligibility for institutional aid.

INSTRUCTIONS

On the 2nd page of this appeal, provide a legible and complete statement indicating all of the extenuating circumstances that caused you to miss the priority filing deadline. Remember that the FAFSA and DREAM Act Applications are available for submission as of October 1st and the priority filing deadline is March 2nd every year. Your explanation must demonstrate your inability to complete the application within the above mentioned time frame .

*All appeals must be accompanied with supporting documentation

For example: A professional statement on letterhead. (Doctor's Note, etc.)

*Late appeal statements MUST be written by the student. Statements written by parents or relatives will not be accepted

Examples of extenuating circumstances we may consider include:

- Hospitalization
- Natural Disaster
- Applications submitted with incorrect personal information
- Other extenuating circumstances rendering you incapable of applying by the priority filing deadline.

REVIEW PROCESS

If your appeal is approved OR denied, you will be notified electronically via your Financial Aid Notification. Appeal approvals are a one-time exception. All students are required to apply by the March 2nd priority filing deadline each year in order to be considered for institutional aid.

Second or Third consecutive year appeals are generally not approved unless the circumstances and documentation are different than the reasons provided in a previous year.

Appeal review time is 2 -3 weeks from date of submission
