Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal

Students who have their financial aid suspended may submit a written appeal using the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal form. When filing an appeal, make sure that you provide a full explanation along with documentation, verifying the circumstances that led to your inability to meet the Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress. Before filing an appeal, it is important that you seek assistance from your school or college advisor in order to explore ways of eliminating your deficiencies and to establish a realistic plan towards graduation.

Completing Your Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal –
Section B

If you received a Financial Aid Suspension Letter or Courtesy Notification and are requesting additional terms, you have an opportunity to appeal this decision. Carefully read and follow the instructions below:

1. Write a detailed letter of appeal. This letter should include and describe the following points:
   a. Explanation of the extenuating circumstances that impacted your ability to meet the minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Standards.
   b. Plan of action indicating how you have addressed or resolve the issue(s) which resulted in your inability to meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements.

2. Provide copies of supporting documentation such as doctors’ letters/bills, death certificate, obituary, police reports, or college transcripts (for suspensions related to percentage of units completed).

3. Submit an Academic Plan. This must include your expected graduation date, the courses and number of units you plan to complete each quarter and your College or School academic advisor’s signature.
   a. You must schedule an appointment with an academic advisor to complete this form and use the Academic Plan form provided in this packet.

4. Sign and date your letter of appeal. Make sure to include your student ID number.

Note: If your Suspension Notice states that you only have a GPA deficiency, the Academic Plan is not required. (Please see Section B, page 4)

Please note that the information you share in your appeal will be kept private, but not confidential. In some instances, we may be required to report incidents you disclose in your appeal to confidential sources on campus which may include the Dean of Students, CAPS, and/or University of California Police Department.
Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal – Section B
(Student – Part I)
